Day 2: Christchurch to Lake Tekapo

Distance (inland scenic route): 271km | Drive time estimate: 3.5 hours

1. Just an hour from Christchurch, heading south towards Geraldine, experience a scenic drive through a rich agricultural area including the Mt Hutt, Methven and Mt Somers regions. Activities are endless on the way, with skiing and snowboarding, skydiving, hiking and country golf.
2. In Geraldine, discover an array of gourmet treats at every corner. Visit Barker's of Geraldine for gourmet jams and chutneys or head to Coco for delicious handmade chocolates.
3. Stop off at Fairlie, the gateway to the Mackenzie Country for a picnic or coffee under a huge oak tree. It's the perfect spot to take a stroll through the pretty farming town, before commencing your last hour's drive to Lake Tekapo.

Day 3: Lake Tekapo – Aoraki Mt Cook – Queenstown

Distance: 370km | Drive time estimate: 4.5 hours

1. Wake up early and hit the road to Aoraki Mt Cook, where you'll come across some of the world's most spectacular views. Visit the world's highest salmon farm for smoked salmon and immerse yourself in the local scenery on an hour long bush walk.
2. Continue your journey on to the stunning alpine village of Twizel for lunch at Shawtys and a stroll before reaching Cromwell. Cromwell is known for superb wines, so enjoy the afternoon sampling the region's famous pinot noir. Alternatively, explore nearby ghost towns and tranquil lakeside scenery.
3. In Queenstown you'll spoil for choice with an array of activities and an eclectic collection of restaurants and bars.

Stay overnight at Peppers Beacon
