If you're looking for a peaceful, scenic location to hold your next winter meeting with the convenience of a vibrant city nearby, Peppers Clearwater Resort in Christchurch is just the place to inspire.

Set amongst the glassy waters of Lake Kaikainui and the distant Southern Alps, the spectacular setting lets guests experience the grandeur of New Zealand's South Island landscape and a spectacular Canterbury winter. The resort offers five unique meeting spaces for you to select.

Peppers Clearwater Resort offers a unique range of experiences to add interest to your agenda. Try the hole in one challenge or the ever entertaining and challenging mini-Olympics*. The Resort comes complete with tennis courts, fly fishing and walking tracks, all just moments away from your meeting. Special resort rates are available for the championship golf course.

Offer includes car parking and WiFi.
